owner pro hac vice, charterer, manager and/or operator of the M/V SCANDINAVIAN REEFER, and at all relevant times, was and is still doing business within the jurisdiction of this Honorable Court.

9. Plaintiffs bring this action on their own behalf and as agent and/or trustee on behalf of and for the interest of all parties who may be or become interested in the said consignments, as their respective interests may ultimately appear, and plaintiffs are entitled to maintain this action.

10. On or about April 16 and 17, 2016, a consignment consisting of 211,200 cartons of fresh Ecuadorian bananas, laden in refrigerated containers and under deck then being in good order and condition, was delivered to the M/V SCANDINAVIAN REEFER and to in personam defendants and/or their agents in Guayaquil, Ecuador by Plaintiffs for transportation to various Ports of Call in the Mediterranean, all in consideration of an agreed upon freight.

11. There was loaded 168,720 cartons of bananas under deck while 42,480 cartons of bananas were loaded into containers and stowed on-deck of the M/V SCANDINAVIAN REEFER. Both the bananas and containers were owned by and/or consigned and/or leased to Plaintiffs, and were in good order and condition at the time they were delivered to the in personam defendants and the vessel for carriage aboard the M/V SCANDINAVIAN REEFER.

12. The transportation of the fruit was all in consideration of an agreed freight and in accordance with the terms of one or more bills of lading, which were then and there signed and delivered to the shipper of the cargo by the duly authorized agent, representative and/or employee of the in personam defendants and the M/V SCANDINAVIAN REEFER.

13. The Vessel was due to arrive in Gibraltar on or about May 3, 2016 and then proceed to Italy, Greece and/or Turkey to discharge its cargo.

14. On or about April 21, 2016 the Vessel experience a Main Engine shutdown due to a detected leakage on one of the engine's cylinders. Because the cylinder could not be repaired at sea the Vessel diverted to Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic operating on 8 of 9 cylinders, arriving in Santo Domingo on April 27, 2016.

15. On May 19 and 20, 2016, an inspection of the cargo was done in Santo Domingo to ascertain the condition of the bananas. At that time the fruit was already 33-38 days old.

Some of the fruit was already showing that it was getting close to the end of green life and should have been dispatched to the ripeners immediately because further delay would result in losses.

16. The Vessel was further delayed and eventually was only able to sail from Santo Domingo on May 24, 2016, more than 30 days after the Vessel experience the Main Engine shutdown.

17. Fresh fruit is perishable and the excessive delay of the vessel caused the fruit to be damaged.

18. Chiquita agreed to attempt to salvage the fruit onboard the vessel by sailing the vessel to Gibraltar.

19. On June 2, 2016 the fruit was again inspected while the Vessel was anchored in Gibraltar. During that inspection all of the on deck cargo of bananas was showing aging symptoms and at least 5% were already ripe and turning. The inspection of the underdeck cargo also showed aging symptoms and 11.5% were ripe and turning. Considering the condition of the bananas it was determined that in order to sell the fruit, immediate delivery of same was necessary.

20. The excessive delay in transporting the fruit to its original market damaged the fruit and therefore alternate markets were sought to mitigate damages.

21. Eventually a sale was made for the damaged cargo in Turkey and the Vessel arrived and began discharging operations in Mersin, Turkey on June 8, 2016 and completed discharge operations on June 11, 2016.

22. On June 9, 2016 the fruit was again inspected in Mersin, Turkey. At that time the age of the fruit was between 54-61 days old. The receiver rejected 1,941 boxes of the containerized bananas and an additional 8,064 boxes from underdeck, resulting in a total of 10,098 boxes being rejected. The receiver agreed to accept 8,064 boxes of ripe and turning cases for free, which saved disposal costs back in the tropics.

23. It was determined that the damage caused by the delay in transporting the cargo was the sole reason for the damage to the fruit.

24. In addition to the losses due to the damaged cargo and the costs of salvage Chiquita suffered additional costs in having to dispose of the rejected cargo in the tropics.

25. At all times relevant hereto, a contract of insurance for property damage was in effect between MARKEL CORPORATION and CHIQUITA which provided coverage for, among other things, loss or damage to the consignments.

26. Pursuant to the aforementioned contract of insurance between MARKEL CORPORATION and CHIQUITA monies have been expended on behalf of CHIQUITA to the detriment of MARKEL CORPORATION due to the damages to the fruit sustained during transit.

27. As MARKEL CORPORATION has sustained damages as a result of said expenditures, expenditures rightly the responsibility of the defendant, MARKEL CORPORATION has an equitable right of subrogation and is subrogated, to the extent of its expenditures, to the rights of its insured with respect to any and all claims for damages against the defendant.

28. The losses sustained by CHIQUITA and MARKEL CORPORATION were not the result of any act or omission on the part of them but, on the contrary, were due solely as the result of the negligence, fault, neglect, breach of contracts of carriage, charter and bailment on the part of in personam defendants as well as the unseaworthiness of the M/V SCANDINAVIAN REEFER which was discoverable by the exercise of due diligence.

29. By reason of the foregoing, plaintiffs have sustained losses which will be shown with specificity at trial, no part of which has been paid, although duly demanded, which are presently estimated to be $3,000,000.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs pray:

1. That process in due form of law issue against the defendants, citing them to appear and answer under oath all and singular the matters alleged in the Complaint;
2. That judgment may be entered in favor of Plaintiffs against Defendants, joint and severally, for the amount of Plaintiff's damages in the amount of at least $3,000,000, together with interest, costs and the disbursements of this action; and

3. That this Court may grant to Plaintiff such other and further relief as may be just and proper.
